Dear Dave,

I appreciate those pages from The Investigator (UGH!) very much, as I will anything else like it quoting Livinsgtone.

I deduce from it that the publisher would not go for the most outrageous of that sickness and that Harry is going to publish it himself.

Of all the irrationality you sent I like best that solution which has Tippit shot in Dallas so his ~~head~~ brain can be stolen and sent to DC to substitute for JFK's!

And that was a scholarly paper Evica or Drago arranged for!

If you say a word about Livingstone be prepared for what you cannot begin to imagine and it will be endless.

You, too, will then be part of consparicies and you also will be dedevilled.

Thanks and best wishes,

Harold
